January 25, 2006

Dear Mr. Brown:

Congratulations to the Loxahatchee River Preservation Initiative for becoming the exemplary model used for prioritizing and implementing water restoration projects throughout the State of Florida. Your highly organized coalition has had far reaching impacts and I commend the spirit of cooperation which has garnered your organization with the reputation of well directed action on the behalf of your name sake.

Natural water quality treatment, storm water reduction, public accessibility, wetland restoration, and more will help insure the long term survival of the diverse habitats and natural communities. Economic and recreational benefits of being surrounded by healthy, clean water will only flourish.

Matching funds from local agencies demonstrate the level of commitment devoted to these projects. I admire the scientists who do the painstaking research and the cities and counties who are meeting responsibilities to future generations by making good decisions now. The many concerned agencies are resolved to coordinating a clear, efficient, cost effective plan of action and with this sort of teamwork the state is more than happy to collaborate.

I remain committed to achieving continuous funding for the Loxahatchee River Preservation Initiative and to leaving this earth a better place for our children.

Sincerely,
